

What's New?

New Safety Requirements:

- All Leadline Riders (no matter which division) are required to wear a helmet.
- Youth Riders (18 & under) in the Western Divisions may wear a helmet. While wearing a helmet is not required, it is strongly encouraged. Youth Riders who wear a helmet will not be penalized for doing so.

New Classes:

English:

Division 5, Open Hack, has been added to the 2010 class list. Open Hack will comprise:

- Pleasure Hack
- Road Hack (Strong trot and/or Hand Gallop may be called for)
- Show Hack (Extended trot and/or Hand Gallop may be called for)

Western Performance :

The classes for Western Performance have been rearranged for 2010 and two reining classes have been added:

- Open Reining
- Green as Grass Reining (Open to all Open and Youth riders)

Western Games:

A new Lead Line Down and Back class has been added to the Western Games classes.

Site Upgrades:

- The Fair Board has added additional Warm-up areas to the immediate west side of the rings.
- Improvements are also planned for the sound system.
- A peripheral fence now surrounds the fairgrounds.

Show Pen Changes:

- The Western Performance Division will show in the most northerly pen closest to the indoor arena this year.
- Western Games and beginner English classes will show in the centre pen.
